WIDOW REVEALS "HEALTH TEST", CLAUDIA GETS TWELVE YEARS

Extra!

HACKENSACK.—Mrs. Claudia Sumner, 34-year-old confessed slayer of the late Rev. George Washington Armstrong on November 18 last, shotted here Monday as, she was sentenced to 12 to 15 years in State Prison by Common Pleas Judge Mackay in Bergen County Court. Claudia abandoned her defense that she slew the minister when he refused to pay for medical treatment and pleaded guilty to second-degree murder, thus closing forever the case which had rocked entire Northern New Jersey. She screamed when she was sentenced and had to be assisted by a matron.

PATERSON.—Mrs. Berta Armstrong, widow of the late Rev. George Washington Armstrong, has been repeatedly incensed due to certain defense rumors, which if true, would have been a positive reflection upon the character of the deceased. Loyal despite her grief, she has secured the following statement signed by Dr. Raphael Gladys, County Physician, who has been in the Administrative Building, Hackensack, N. J.

Office of County Physician, Administrative Building, Hackensack, N. J., January 28, 1939.

Mother Dies With Babe In Arms

A Demon!

That's What John Henry's Mother Thinks of Joe Louis

PHOENIX, Ariz.—John Henry Lewis's mother, who refused to listen to the radio broadcast of the fight with Joe Louis last week, said:

"I just can't understand how it happened. My boy is a good fighter, but that Joe Louis must be a demon."

Mrs. Lewis wept when another son, Paul, who had listened to the broadcast, brought her the sad news.

Babe In Arms As Mother Dies

A mother who had been nursing a two-months-old baby was found dead here Friday with the baby peacefully cooing in her arms. The mother, Mrs. Arline White, 35, of 1754 Pennsylvania avenue, was discovered by Mrs. Catherine Winkey of 1774 Pennsylvania avenue, when she called to pay a visit.

Police say that soon after the mother had given her four children their noon meal and hustled them back to school she had ap-

The lovely singer pictured above is a living example of the combination of striking beauty and poise and latent singing talent. Avis Andrews is best remembered as the prima donna of the Cotton Club Revue of two seasons ago.

Choir

Sings to Quiet 500 As Bayonne Church Fire Stops Sermon

BAYONNE.—The heroic work of a singing choir was hailed here Sunday for saving some 500 men, women and children members of the Wallace Temple African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church from possible serious injury when fire interrupted the afternoon service.

A capacity crowd was attending services conducted by the Rev. B. C. Robinson, pastor of the Mother Zion Church of New York City when fire broke out.

New York Student

Slays Professor, Then Kills Self

NASHVILLE, Tenn.—Tragedy and violence stalked the quiet campus of Meharry Medical College here Friday morning when Eric D. Williams, 38, of New York City, killed his professor, Dr. W. E. A. Forde, 55, shortly before 9 A. M. and killed himself an hour later.

Exposed and dismissed from the college when Dr. Forde caught him cheating, Williams returned to the examination hall and fired the fatal shot into the body of the professor. The student then walked 20 feet down the hall and shot himself. Both died immediately.

Bamberger's In The Herald-News

On Monday, January 30, Bamberger's launched its 44th Store-day Anniversary Sale. Bamberger's began in humble surroundings forty-six years ago and by quality and service developed into "One of America's Great Stores," the fourth-largest department store in the world, employing thousands of people, including many Negroes, and serving hundreds of thousands of happy and satisfied customers.

The New Jersey Herald News had an illustrious beginning. Roy Williams, nationally known officer of the N. A. A. C. P. and editor of Crisis magazine, will pay a fitting tribute to the great Frederick Douglass.

SUMMIT SAYS SUICIDE WAS MARRIED MAN

Extra!

SUMMIT.—The dramatic suicide of Zion Mitchell, 24, in Montclair last Friday revealed a picture of him as a "Gay Cabellero," a victim of a tangled web of an unhappy triangle who sought the "easy way out." This was the sited opinion of Summit residents who knew him as a "married man."

Mitchell, a former newspaper correspondent for Summit, ended his life in the home of his parents at 79 Pine street, Montclair, Friday afternoon by inhaling gas from a pipe connected to the kitchen range.

Henry Ralls, stepfather of the youth, discovered his body when he returned home at 4:30 P. M. He had been visiting relatives in Philadelphia. Ralls summoned the police, who carried the body to the hospital where Mitchell was pronounced dead.

First reports from Montclair gave the reason for the suicide as despondency over losing the case as deponent over losing the case of the 88 lawyers who qualified as counselors in an examination taken by 188 last October.

Lincoln Impersonator At Memorial Services

The 27th annual celebration of the birthdays of Abraham Lincoln and Frederick Douglass, under the joint auspices of the Lincoln Douglass Memorial Association of Newark and the City Commissioners of Newark will be held Monday, February 13th at 2 P. M. at the First Presbyterian Church (Old First Church) located at 820 Broad street.

This celebration takes on added interest with the announcement of the appearance of Lincoln Caswell, famous impersonator of the late President, of New York City, who will relate that memorable Cabinet meeting at which the act which freed the slaves was hastily discussed.

Mr. Caswell, whose own personal resemblance to Lincoln is striking, and whose impersonation of the President are in great demand, will represent the celebration's sole tribute to the Great Emancipator on the program.

Roy Williams, nationally known officer of the N. A. A. C. P. and editor of Crisis magazine, will pay a fitting tribute to the great Frederick Douglass.

Atty-General Hargroves Cites Precedent In Collins Decision

JERSEY CITY—Assistant Attorney General Robert S. Hargroves issued the following statement to a reporter of the New Jersey Herald News to clarify certain interpretations that have been placed on Supreme Court Justice Case's opinion in the Ira Collins case.

"It has been suggested that under the law he was clearly entitled, if not obliged, to consider and pass upon the business capacity of the candidate. No hue or cry was raised by the public that the relator, Jones, was discriminated against. The weakness of Jones' case was due to the discretionary powers vested in the person having the right of appointment. It might be well in reading the case of Jones vs. Orlando to consider the following cases therein referred to, to wit: Edell vs. McDermott, 165 Atl. Rep. p. 719; Davison vs. Patterson, 94 N. J. Law, p. 338-110 Atl. Rep. p. 827; McGinley vs. Martin, 170 Atl. Rep. p. 848; Harwood vs. Civil Service Commission, 170 Atl. Rep. p. 639, aff. 112 N. J. Law, p. 499-171 Atl. Rep. p. 799.

"The difficulty with which we are confronted in this case, is the decision of the Supreme Court, but the legislative enactment. If we desire that Commissioner Magee should be divested of the discretion imposed upon him by the law, then it is our duty to call upon our legislators to change the law. Our Courts are not legislators, but simply interpreters of the law as it is enacted.

"An appeal to the Court of Errors and Appeals of the State of New Jersey in the Collins case would be futile. Our resort in to the ballot box. When our vested powers under citizenship and the right of franchise can be intelligently marshaled and coordinated in suchwise that the balance of power held by us will have force and effect, legislation can then be demanded which will be more remedial of our social and economic ills. We lack a racial mind, a racial will and the initiative for racial redemption.

"It is my personal belief that Ira Collins was fitted for the position, but personal beliefs are not the law. It is also my belief that discrimination should be vested in some one in order that fitness might be properly passed upon, but without prejudice. It would be a sad condition in our institutional life that any certified disabled veteran could because of his physical disability, be placed in a position, irrespective of his other qualifications. Under such circumstances, a premium is placed upon disability and at the expense of the public. Reason dictates otherwise.

"In passing, I might suggest that our legal profession read the case of Marlon vs. Altman, 129 N. J. Law, p. 16-195 Atl. Rep. p. 724. This case is enlightening as to the proper procedure to be adopted in matters similar to the Collins case.

Wynn Guild Scores Musical Recital

EAST ORANGE—The expert handiwork of a tireless teacher... a genius instructor... was evident as the members of the Wynn Music and Dramatic Guild presented its first anniversary recital in the spacious East Orange High School Auditorium here Thursday evening before an enthusiastic and appreciative audience that was left speechless and begging for encores at the end.

Behind the Chorus's splendid rendition of Komatz's "Riegger's The Slough,"... its beautiful interpretation of Strauss' "Summer Winds, Blow," (from Blue Danube Waltzes)... one could see the finished hand of Directress Cora Wynn Alexander.

The sparkling thirty voice chorus finished its group of three selections with "Caravan," by Penzuti. Outstanding performers were William F. Woolfolk, bass soloist, who mastered the difficult "Passant Nuni" by Mozart with surprising ease of control, Miss Elizabeth Harris, mezzo soprano, who drew a round of applause with her interpretation of "Un Bel Di Vedremo (Madame Butterfly)" by Puccini.

Escapading In Monmouth

Hi, Folks?... Oh-Me-Gosh, the phone again and it's that man wanting to know did we hear about Jam Session at Major's on Thursday nite. Of course, we're telling that man that the joint was jumpin' "sky high" when Swingers A'treat "Ham" Richardson, Harold "Boggy" Hopson and George Hall "got together" and play strict "five rhythm"... This was the Original Raritan A. G. S. "first affair" and it's any indication of what's to come, we're saying right now, "watch out, those Raritanians are on and they're getting hot"... With crowning "boogie woogie" artist, Bernice Morgan leading the way, followed by "De Lovely" shagun ladies, including Elsie Jackson, Charlotte Shaw, Geraldine Major, Doris Lawson, Mabel Baker, and your favorite "hot" girl, Betty Taylor and Lucy Ball. The show was on solid and the joint was a bedlam of dance! feet... Fed Bank Live and Jubber... An oddity, yes, but cake and ice cream held away when eleven members of the Lewis Can. told Brother Ralph Lloyd to a gala party on his 14th birthday... Our sympathy to Mae and Doris Sanderlin and Ruth Jackson, who recently attended rites in New York for their uncle, John W. Sanderlin... Remember the N. A. A. C. P. is for you, so why not dance at Greenbrier's on Sat. nite and help them to help others to dance on the Highway to Success...

Dr. Foulkes, Dean Pickens, Countee Cullen Speakers At Interracial Meet Feb. 9th

Marking a new epoch in racial relations in Newark, eight local chapters of national and international organizations, representing all racial groups, have joined forces in staging a monster Brotherhood Day meeting in observance of International Week, on the evening of Thursday, February 9th, in the Y.M.C.A. at 53 Washington Street.

Speakers for the evening will be Dr. William Hiram Foulkes, pastor of O. D. First Church of Newark, who also is co-chairman of the Committee of 100 in Defense of Human Rights and a prominent civil leader for many years; and Dean Williams Pickens, the renowned and militant N.A.A.C.P. field secretary who has established an international reputation as a scholar and a tireless fighter for the rights of Negroes throughout the world.

As a special feature of the evening, Countee Cullen, brilliant young poet of New York will speak.

"Goodbye, Mother and Father. Please allow Rev. Mrs. Randolph of Summit to have the last say over me before laid to my eternal rest. This note was written to his mother.

A note to Hazel read: "Dear I, cannot stand it any longer. It is greater than I can bear."

Mrs. Florence Randolph, who pastored the church in Summit which Mitchell attended, officiated at the funeral of J. B. Holcombe, funeral parlor, 8 Mission street, Montclair, on Monday.

Friends of Mrs. Willie Jackson of Broad street, Summit, stated that Mitchell eloped with his sister, Miss Maude Fletcher, at the funeral of J. B. Holcombe, December 1937. The couple resided some time in 1938. Reports here say the couple didn't seem to hit it off so well. The reason given was a "girl in Montclair."

Neither Mrs. Jackson nor her sister could be located in Summit over the week-end. They knew of the tragedy. They did not attend the funeral. Mitchell was a popular figure in Summit for over two years.

Rev. and Mrs. C. H. Watkins Celebrate 5th Anniversary

Rev. and Mrs. C. H. S. Your Eyes
Are Your Arms Long Enough for Reading?

By Dr. A. E. Levigton—81 Prince Street, Newark

It may seem strange to ask a question of this nature, but it is enough for reading. To a person in his forties it is not such a queer question. Normally a person is able to read at about 14 inches. If you have to hold the paper further away or closer, you need glasses. You invite eyestrain and headaches if you do not wear glasses.

In these days of "life begins at forty," it seems to be true of everything but getting a job. The person with a youthful appearance has the best chance of getting a job and holding it. Glasses that are properly fitted and styled will make a person look years younger.

In the case of the person who needs reading glasses, it is best to get the modern invisible type. Double-eight glasses give a person vision as natural as that of young people. Their appearance does not give the wearer's age away.

In addition to all this it is much more convenient to wear bifocals, or double glasses. If you wear only reading glasses you have to remove them when you want to look away from your reading or work. With double glasses you have natural sight at all times.

Nowadays you may get these modern glasses on convenient credit terms. You can't ask for more.

Within a few minutes the screams of children and women shouting "fire" nearly threw the church in a panic. Many shrieked and ran from the building before Rev. Robeson started his choir singing a hymn and then he admonished again starting a stampede.

The choir sang "God Will Take Care of You" and the congregation calmly marched from the structure. Firemen rushed to the scene and prevented serious damage to the two-story frame edifice.

PROSPECTUS

Progressive action is both the motive and objective of democracy. If not "Truth," then the SPIRIT OF TRUTH will make men free and creative. They serve RACE or GROUP or SELF best who, like Roger Williams, would claim for themselves no right or privilege which is not granted to all men equally.

Our Churches

The Christian Church, since its inception by the Apostles, is still our greatest institution. During this present period of world unrest far too many of us have visualized the Church as a spiritual institution only for the mentally and emotionally unbalanced individual. This is a very unwise attitude which may be the result of a lack of trained leadership, selfish motives or the impractical applications of religious principles to every day living.

Superficially, the Church in recent history may have taken issue too often with the argument that its existence was for the ulterior selfish goal of maintaining economically and, sometimes politically, the "chosen few" who held positions of leadership. This may or may not be true; yet it does not remove the eternal truths upon which the church was founded.

Such truths which still are necessary for maintaining a good community are: the virtues of truth, love and justice.

Should the average minister now strive to teach the human relationship of "love thy neighbor as thyself" in all ways, economically, socially, morally and spiritually, our communities would thrive better because the principles of human relationships would be stressed more and teachings would place an inestimable value on the life and teachings of Jesus.

If the church existed only as an institution to lead us to and to develop our imagination of "bright heaven," then it would be valueless for it would be evading the issue of every day life.

It would indeed be valueless because the church today as never before can render a service far superior and more effective than any organization in the world. The Christian Church today is a consolidation of many organizations, spiritual, social and recreational, serving the diverse and complex needs of the community.

Fun In Christendom

The Herald News reprints the editorial "Fun in Christendom" because we think that it is very timely in connection with our editorial "Our Churches."

In his engaging sermon at Trinity Church last Sunday the Rev. Dr. Berard Nivings Bell, Canon of Providence, and long known as an author of provocative ideas, put forth the suggestion that the Christian slogan for society should be "MORE FUN FOR EVERY ONE, AND DOWN WITH THOSE WHO MAKE, OR WOULD MAKE, MEN AND WOMEN INTO SORRY SLAVES."

Alluding to the unhappiness of those who become slaves of the machine, whether they are in machines of a rotten capitalism or a totalitarian state, he extolled the joys of craftsmanship and made a plea for a "world where every potty little craftsman has a chance to be his jolly, potty little self." He argued that there was once in the Western World a "thing called Christendom" which was "characterized by a world of happiness and merriment for common people."

Of course, there are those who would contend, and with considerable force, that Christendom for a time became not a happy way of life, but rather a philosophy of submissiveness and despair of much pleasure on this earth; that it accepted the woes of this life as a sort of necessary prelude to the joy of the hereafter, and that the idea of fun was during this period kept alive, not by the church but by hedonists and irreverent unbelievers. There is a wide field for argument here.

And yet, the conclusion is inescapable, that for whatever reason, the world has witnessed another decline of the comic spirit and a widespread shackling of individuality to the discouragement of natural jollity and laughter. In short, we have less fun and less real freedom than in many generations. If Canon Bell's theory of Christendom is the right one, then by all means we might try the restoration of Christendom.

Business Forum

A business forum will be held next Monday evening, February 6, at the Equal Opportunity headquarters, 21 West Street, to bring together all business people and have them understand business principles and to discuss ways and means of increasing one's business. Among the topics that will be brought before the group by interesting and talented speakers include: "Our Approach to Business," "Creating Business," "Business and the Community," "Applied Intelligence in Business," "Religion in Business," "Public Opinion and Means of Increasing One's Business," "All Phases of Quality in Business."

The Reader Speaks

BIRTHRIGHT—A colored production by a colored producer. What is the point of it? If it is to depict life among the Negroes of the South, why is this not done in the true sense of life as it exists in that section?

It is the writer's humble opinion that if a work has no purpose it had better not be done at all. The alleged plot of "white man and colored woman intermingling" has been common for such a long time that really it has ceased to be common, and it has gone into the class of hackneyed trite that only the weak, unoriginals use because of the lack of ability to conjure up something out of their own brains.

If, indeed, this and other productions have been made to show the deplorable conditions of life for the Negro, and with the hope that some steps may be taken to alleviate these conditions, the idea should be more fully brought out. As it is, we are educating a white public to appreciate the fact that the Negro is degraded and can never hope for more than degradation, and lowering the morale of the Negro to such an extent that he can have nothing toward which to look forward as a boost to the race.

If the producer had no other purpose in making this picture than that of getting more funds, he, in my opinion, would have done better to expend his energy ploughing or hoeing in somebody's Southern cornfield. Needless to say, Birthright was not disgusting, but lousy.

Negro group, I appeal to you to open your eyes and become aware of the address of your present plight. Refrain from the desire to laugh when something is funny on the surface; look deeper and demand an understanding and coming race those things which are for the upbuilding of our people.

All - Around

By LILLIAN B. HUFF

Oops! We've Started Sumpin'

Name the TEN outstanding women in New Jersey...You're really putting your head out to do that, but here goes: (1) Mrs. Sarah S. Washington; (2) Mrs. Mary E. Burrell; (3) Rev. Florence Randolph; (4) Mrs. Grace B. Fenderson; (5) Mrs. Bertha Randolph; (6) Miss Violet Johnson; (7) Mrs. Evelyn Brock; (8) Mrs. Mary Williams; (9) Miss Pansy Borders; and (10) Mrs. Rosamond Stewart Saunders.

But Did I Have Ideas:

With a fever...plenty of time to waste...that adage about idle hands and mind is true...My mind (oh, yes...if I have one) wandered over many things...suddenly centering on the idea of the ten most outstanding women in New Jersey...Let's see, now. In business there is certainly Mrs. Sara Spencer Washington of Atlantic City...A pioneer business woman who has truly poured into the laps of many girls the opportunity of making a decent living...No way possible to forget the New Jersey's Newspaper workers' friend in the person of Mrs. Grace B. Fenderson; who has been for a long while a leader in the field of civic and racial affairs...Mrs. Bertha Randolph, noted for her queenly carriage, has done much in music and "it" work to give her a claim to a number among that first ten...Rev. Florence Randolph of Summit, is acclaimed by all Federated Women and a must among the first five...Don't worry, Mrs. Mary E. Burrell would be Number 2 on the list...very few women can name the list of clubs, societies and other organizations that she belongs to...Besides the very great service she has done her race in many instances unknown...

Lets See...Five More:

Of course in Westfield Mrs. Evelyn V. Brock, whose name usually leads in every fight for the race...Miss Violet Johnson of Summit, who has done much for the out-of-town student who comes to Jersey unknown and very friendless...Mrs. Mary Williams of Orange, whose praise will be sung...Pansy Borders, a little young for this group, but in ten more years she will be able to count her spurs and be raised to the Hall of Fame...There are really so many worthwhile women in New Jersey that one can barely pick ten that stand out a bit more...Never fear, Mrs. Rosamond Stewart Saunders is one of my own special numbers. Next week why not send me your list?...

Cora Wynn Alexander:

What a thrill those certain calls must have been to Cora Thursday night at the East Orange High School when the enthusiastic audience kept asking for encore after encore from her pupils she had taught so faithfully...The stage was decorated in such a way that your mind, your eyes—everything blended in completely the program of Cora Wynn's Guild on their first anniversary...And Mrs. William Maxwell were on hand to clap for Bernice Gardner if a swing had noticed her gorgeous eyes...Captains of Dickerson's hands were a joy to watch as she and Mrs. Mary Smoot of Vaux Hall played "Liebesfreud," by Kreisler...Mary Tribbe of Newark was very smart in a peach satin...Dr. and Mrs. J. O. Hills of Newark, arriving a little late, due to Mrs. Hill's music lesson...

All's Well...We Hope:

Nice dinner at the Orange Y. W. C. A., but was it cold...Dorothy Height was stunning in a white outfit...Gertie Stith is really beginning to be quite competent...I believe there's hope for the "ingenue"...We know Mr. Pa...Big Brother and Little Sister will be at the Chi. Episcopalian Ch. after Saturday night at the Savoy Ballroom...promises to be the introductory note to swanky formal that will soon have us chicks wondering about what to wear...We know all's well with the 1939 "amour gal" of Rosette, Madelyn Stewart...Johnny Borian, can track man, is her constant escort these days and nights...They were spied on a visit to Joe Lou's camp, accompanied by Mrs. Florence Jackson, mother of the young deb...All's well, fella...rough to Elizabeth...Harry Hurd swears he is looking for a wife...Well, in signing off boys and girls, don't forget in this term, to study and study hard...pick your subjects yourself...not what is the easiest, but what will help you most in the fight to succeed in life...If you don't believe it's a fight...Whew!...ask us, for we sure know.

Saunders Fete

Mr. and Mrs. John Saunders, of Somerset street entertained in honor of their niece, Nellie Berry, who graduated from South Side High School last Friday, Saturday evening at their home.

Those present were: Mae Burnett, Elsie Bryan, Marjorie Dickerson, Helen Marshall, Eva Chambers, Mildred Barnabell, Benjamin Berry, Willie Simmons, John Daniels, Dennis Hughes, John

Wynn, Ruben Jackson, Also Jesse Davis, Harvard Epps, James Hutchinson, Frank Powell, Ray Banks, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wotten, Mr. and Mrs. Askin Cover, Mr. and Mrs. William Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. Curly Sykes, Mrs. Ethel Berry, Edie Saunders and Walter Gacchett. IT'S CUTE

But it is the Young Girls of Today

Three colored girls in Elizabeth went to see the picture "Broadway Muskeeters" on New Year's and enjoyed it very much. When they got home they decided to organize a club by the same name (with three girls only) but not on the same basis. The girls are Juneta Robinson, Ruth Gilmore and Lila Askward. Their club names are Fay Le Belle, Isabel Dowling and Connie Todd. Each of them holds an office. Juneta is president, Ruth is secretary and Lila is treasurer. They have very strict rules and regulations. The purpose of the club is to supply needs.

Celebrates 17th Anniversary

A surprise wedding anniversary and birthday party was given in honor of Mr. R. Henry of 124 Glenmont street on January 25 by his loving wife.

The couple received many lovely gifts. Friends attending were: Mrs. Lillian Henry, mother of the guest of honor; Mrs. Katherine Henry, Miss Mary Miller, Mrs. Hardman, Mrs. Mary E. Holt, Mrs. Parker, Mr. George Peterson and Mrs. Emma W. McCray.

Mrs. Bertha Randolph Gives Swank Party for Jersey Matron

Mrs. Bertha Randolph wife of one of New Jersey's leading lawyers and recognized very definitely as the guide in Jersey's social whirl was again acclaimed as number one hostess Saturday afternoon when she entertained the members of the exclusive Jersey Matrons and other guests at a colorful bridge-luncheon, in her beautiful home 123 South 18th Street.

MRS. BERTHA RANDOLPH

The ladies, gowned in "Dance Fashion's latest commands," were served at the bar by Mrs. E. T. Roberts of New York City. They were then invited to partake of a repeat "fit for a queen" seated at tables that presaged a first of spring in their green and yellow decoration and added a festive note to an already gala occasion.

Jersey matrons present were: Mesdames Muriel West, Esther Roulefort, Pansy Thompson, Abby Seavin, Pannie Curtis, Florence Parks, Lottie Cooper and Lettie Carpenter.

Guests from New York included: Mesdames Ruth Roberts, Lillian S. Alexander, Ethel Route, Ann Lock, Jesse Faust, Harrie, Helen Curtis, Orville Oliver, Lucile Aubrey, Jennie Jackson, Edith Hoover and Lillian Toney.

Also Marie Parker of Red Bank, Betty Carter of Asbury Park, Mildred M. Williams of Rutherford, Beanie N. Hill of Orange, Lillian Alexander of Orange, Mary E. Woods of Newark, Grace Fenderson of Newark, Helen Washington of Newark, Mary E. Goodwin of Orange and Carrie Snowden and Beanie E. Hargraves.

Club prizes were won by Mesdames Abby Nevius and Fannie Curtis. Guest prizes were awarded to Lillian Alexander of Orange, Marie Parker of Red Bank and Ethel Route of New York City.

Honor Roselle Deb. at Shower

ROSSELLE—Miss Olive Bryant was hostess at a miscellaneous shower last Thursday evening, held in honor of Miss Amelia Morrison of Rahway.

The guests were Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Scott, Mrs. Ida White, Mrs. R. McCann, Mrs. Nat. Harrison, Mrs. George Merritt, Mrs. Fanny Pitta, Mrs. L. Brown and Mrs. Samuel Wilmore.

Also the Misses Ruth Massey, Lucinda Varnade, Fanny Pitts, Mildred Smith, Ethel Pulley, Emma Branley, Ezra Brantly, Elizabeth Lukas.

Also Miss Frances Rand, Mrs. Marie Jones, Miss Madelyn Diggs, Winton White and Arthur Bryant.

Popular Matron Feted At Gay Affairs In Summit

SUMMIT—Many affairs have been given in the past few weeks in compliment to Mrs. Otha Thomas of Palmyra, N. J., who is the house guest of Mrs. Hawthorne Ader.

The first Saturday in the month at dinner Mrs. Ader had for guests in honor of her visitor, Mrs. R. Cowart, Miss Louise Smith, Mr. Samuel Synder and Dr. E. H. Allen. After dinner the party took a sight-seeing trip ending at the Logan Luncheonette on Springfield avenue, Summit.

Mr. and Mrs. Lovelace Jackson were host and hostess on January 13 for the charming matron. A chicken and waffle supper was Miss Violet A. Johnson's way of showing true hospitality Saturday evening, January 14th. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. A. Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. Harold Scott, Mesdames Marion Mann, E. Davis, G. Harris, S. Smith, W. H. Cumming, L. H. Ader, Kenneth Worde and Dr. E. H. Allen.

On Sunday Mrs. Thomas was honored at a family dinner of Mrs. Mary Harrison of Chestnut street, who was entertaining in greeting to her relatives from Pennsylvania.

Secret Is Out
A reception and house warming will be held next Saturday evening, February 4, in honor of Mrs. and Mrs. Alexander Edwards at their new home, 644 Bergen street, Newark. Announcements are out of the marriage of the well-known couple who were secretly married on Wednesday, June 15, 1938.

Sally's Chatterings

Silly notice No. 1, "Women with brains are minus beauty and charm," was routed to the four corners last Friday eve, as fully seventy or more women of glamour, charm, beauty, grace and poise dined with the NORTH JERSEY BRANCH NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF COLLEGE WOMEN at LOFTS, COLONIAL ROOM, President PANSY L. BORDERS, college bred to suit degree, altho running to pumppness, ranks among Jersey's pretty ladies, presided with dignity, attired in black frock with voluminous sleeves edged in multi-color sequins, and exemplifying that admirable BORDERS trait to life each other, programmed cousin LUCILLE WATKINS as soloist for the occasion. MRS. UNA JANIEF lighted the tall, white candle symbolizing the "TORCH OF HIGHER EDUCATION FOR WOMEN," carried by the late Dean LUCY D. SLOWE, founder and organizer. BORDERS TATE in dusty pink lace, gave the history; MRS. LEROY ADAMS JONES (white North Atlantic Director, Assn. of University Women, declared "College people should have more vision, interpreting it, appreciating excellency and rewarding it." MRS. HELEN B. GROSSLEY, Pres. Natl. Assn., enthused us, striking a theme of "SELF-CONTROL UNDER FIRE." Quite a few men who have achieved came along, such as jovial DR. CLARENCE S. JANIFER; No. 1 mortician JAMES H. BECKETT, affable N. Y. A. head, WM. H. SMITH; THEODORE WELLS of BELLEVILLE; DR. KINCHELOW; JOHN JONES; REV. M. L. WILSON, now presiding in New York, accomplishing things. As to the women, 'twas a scene which would have done justice to a Hollywood preview. Petite and charming MRS. J. LEROY JORDAN, exuding divinity in a black jacketed frock with gold lapel; MARY WOODS, "V" exec. in black frock with neckline of multi-colored sequins; GRACE BAXTER FENDERSON, in black velvet with draped shoulder sleeves; MRS. SCOTT, mother-in-law to nurse FRANCES POLK SCOTT (Frances in teal blue taffeta and mother in black and silver lame); and sister-in-law, MARION SCOTT, wearing gold sequin jacket over black; MAE HENDON, up from Bordentown, in slim-fitted black skirt and scarlet velvet peplum; JEAN CASON, HELEN NOTIS and LUCY HARRINGTON (Lucy pledged to Iota, wondering if she dared drag on a cigarette with gracious LERESSA CATHEY in black taffeta, just across the way). Leresse's mother, seated on the other side, the very image of her charming daughter (or is it mother, you round?).

CARRIE EPTTS POWELL, radiating glamour in black velvet, altho in turquoise and gold beads; BERTHA C. RANDOLPH; RUTH DUNCAN; SMITH; WILHELMINA WILLIAMS in black bolero frock with black satin bodice; Loretta Brown in two-toned grey bodice, black skirt frock; dimpled MAXINE COOPER Hill, pretty as ever, in dinner frock of light mulberry skirt and printed bodice on background of lavender; LENORA WILLETT in pale blue, arriving a bit late; CARRIE NESBITT in black taffeta; MRS. L. G. BROWN, stately, in teal blue (giving your columnist a big hand). Ah, these delightful people! LANDONIA LEWIS MARROW, vivacious, in rose taffeta; away down the end we spied gorgeous ALICE FOSTER; EFAA MANLEY, viddy, viddy charming in chocolate brown frock, just returned from VEG LEAGUE BASEBALL MEETINGS over in Gotham; MABELLE ROBINSON, stunning in royal blue velvet; MRS. THEODORE WELLS, very pretty in sheer striped navy, living up to the dinner course with her charming remarks. Yes, there were others.

Society

A Buffet dinner was given in honor of Miss Grace Reese last Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Mary Dodd, 210 Marvin street. Miss Reese is a recent graduate of Bloomfield High and wishes to enter Columbia University in New York.

"Follies Bergere" On The Stage At The Paramount

The one and only musical French comedy that had New York City shocked is coming to Newark Friday at the Adams Paramount Theatre. This show, presented by that master showman of France, Mr. Clifford C. Fisher, is the only one of its kind. Always limited, but never duplicated.

"Follies Bergere" of 1939, which comes from its one-year run at the International Casino, New York, boasts of a cast of 75 great artists from abroad and the world's most gorgeous, adorable, lovely, beautiful, girly crew to appear on any stage. Forty-five of them. There are five beautiful scenes in this great stage production. "The Beauty Factory," "The Parisian Shop," "The Lace Wedding," "The Exotic Tasse" and "Maxim" (1939).

Its Paris night life brought to Newark in all of its splendor. The cast includes Franklyn D'Amore and Anita Grace and Nikko Fred Sanborn, Harold and Lola, Trio Savoyettes, Tito Vadlee, Vera Nargo, George Bruay and others. "The screen's biggest thriller, 'Ambush,' which features Gladys Swarthout, lovely opera star, in her first dramatic role. Others include Lloyd Nolan, Ernest Truex and William Henry.

Hothinda Wassau, Black and White Revue at Empire

Another big week is promised by Sam Reider, manager of the Empire Theatre, with the booking of that top-notch burlesque star, Hinda Wassau and her "Hindu Belles," which began Sunday at original.

"Ritz Rockets" is the first show featuring Fanny Blinder and Jack Rosen, two of the cleverest comics in burlesque. Love's Nona Martin of the Paradise Club, New York, will present exotic South Seas dances.

"Lucky Sambo" is the title of the colored show and features some of the best-known entertainers from Harlem, including the zaniest trio of comics on the stage today—David, Witty and Jazbo. The Three Blue Jackets are an acrobatic group with sensational routines. Pretty Wilma Mae Lane, volcanic soubrette, a sensational hit from the Cotton Club; Jellie Smith, singer of Southern melodies; Sahji, Oriental dancer; Jesse James, the unusual crotch and rhythm hooper; the Six Lindy Hoppers, and a chorus of sepias beauties complete this big show.

Wednesday is Prize Night and Thursday Jitterbug Contest Night.

1200 Hear King Jimmie & Band

Fully 1,200 jitterbugs and swing dancers crowded Krueger's Auditorium last Friday night to dance to the fine music of Jimmie Lunceford and his orchestra. Seven Pals scored another smash hit when they brought this latest "King of Syncopation" to Newark and Jimmie played his best numbers for the pleasure of the crowd.

It can truly be said that the

Jitterbugs Are On The Loose---For Prizes At Count Basie Dance Friday

Lindy hoppers, shaggers, lambert walkers and the old American standby—the rug-cutter—will swing out at Krueger's Auditorium this Friday evening with gold in their rhythm and in their dancing shoes. The reason: The Rho Sigma Rho Club, which presents his highness Count Basie and his orchestra on Friday, is offering prizes of $50.00 for the rug-cuttingest rug-cutter in this vicinity.

Indications are that the Jitterbug Contest will rival the Great Swing of Count in attention. Practically every town in this section is sending its "champs" to Krueger's Friday to bring home the bacon.

Jitterbugging is supposed to be an exclusive Newark pastime, but according to the announcement made by the club last week, the Oranges, Montclair and even Morristown have entered several teams in the contest.

Appearing with the Count are Helen Humes, new song stylist, and James Rushing, famed blues singer. Count completes a full season of outstanding bands in Newark. Duke Ellington and Jimmie Lunceford both played here last week. The Count shows' to get them all.

Kinney Hall Cabaret Party

Mrs. J. Benton, Miss Sadie McDonald and Miss Gladys Webster entertained their friends at a birthday party at Kinney Hall Monday night. The guests were given a complete show, featuring Herbert Hendon's Swingers, C. Fisher, master of ceremonies; Gladys Webster, Flo Thomas, Connie and Viola Underhill, with guest artist Sammy Paige from the "Isle of Capri"; Miss Reba Fields from the Kit Kat Club and J. Underhill, an accomplished guitar player.

Among the many guests were Mr. Tony Nolas, Mrs. Maude Dorsey, Mr. and Mrs. J. Underhill, Mrs. L. Rinck, Mrs. Charlotte Williams and Mrs. Elmore Smith.

Elizabeth

The North Jersey Medical Association met Wednesday night, February 1, at the Watkins House, Dickerson street. Dr. William H. Brown was host at the dinner meeting.

The Elizabeth Youth Council held an Open Forum Sunday afternoon at Mt. Teaman A. M. E. Church. The topic was "How Can Sectionalism Be Abolished in Elizabeth?" Edmund Jones is president of the group.

Miss Ruth Hurd is well on the road to recovery after a long siege of illness.

Norman Hurd, John Little and Leroy Barker attended the Young People's Spiritual Emphasis Conference at St. James Presbyterian Church, New York City. They were the dinner guests of Miss

JITTERBUG... ON THE LINE by Fani Richardson

ALWAYS A GREAT FAVORITE in this section, Jimmie Lunceford and his crew were the ace attraction last Friday evening when they took off at Krueger's. KIDDIES from all stems set their gauge and burlesqued back, while ruckus-juice and fire water was indulged in. Seats in the gallery accommodated the more conservative while the first floor was for "Dancers Only."

Directly in front of the band stand the kiddies, including many clays, lamped the perfect pose of "Gee Gee" and the boys, especially Duke Grissom, Paul Webster in "Harlem Shot," Trumaine "Gee," in "Ain't What You Do," Quartet in "Cheating on Me," Elmer Grumley in "Hokus Pokus" and last face sax chorus in "Stardust," including Earl Caruthers, Billy Smith, Ted Buckner and Joe Thomas were all in the groove.

During the intermission the kiddies lived the cats, secured autographs, demanded solos and latched on to some mighty fine refreshments, after which the boys continued the jam. Shortly after a dance chimed "Jazzocracy" ruled, but as the jitterbugs jumped to the last strains, Jimmie and the boys were already digging their last notes and bemies in order to make a cast-out.

LAMPEL Emmett Seemann, Freddie Davis, Benny Collins, Alphonse Lovett, Henry Smith, Ernest Edwards, Herbert Johnson, Jimmie Reid, Richard Puryear, Eddie Ray and not omitting a few of the twisters, Josephine Brown, Edna Edwards, Mandell Smith, Ethel Weeks, Beatrice Jordan, Alma Curry, Vivian and Gloria Watts, Dorene Simms and Wilfred Ody. Thanks to the Seven Pals, who presented this night of gala entertainment.

ALSO DRIPPING A KIDILLI affair on the socialities was the Suburban Set of East Orange, who came on at the Afro Club with their first anniversary dance. Kudos my blithers on Louie Louie and his stub, Veronica Blackburn, Alice Garner, Evelyn Stewart, Fannie Womack, Madelon and Hortense Marshall, Harry Spelman, Ernie Coleman, Ed Brown, Wilma Collins, Lucy Williams, Rasha Furman, Helen Greene, Bernice Keyes, Mildred Kelley and—

Among the notables talented IVY LEAGUE AND ROSEBUD STEWART SAUNDERS AND LUCY AND KAREN who really did take off. For those in the sporting world the "Y" Collegians and Brooklyn Grosvenors presented an evening of thrills and spills on the basketball court; the Collegians triumphed. Monday night jam session at the Savoy still comes on, and really is the play. Just a reminder to you unshipped kiddies with your un-laced shoes.

PETITE and charming Lillian Brown of East Orange was the recipient of a surprise birthday party last week, also. Guests included Evelyn Barker, Richard Lee, Blanche Longue and Evelyn Davidson. Ann booked you jitterbugs are digging the Rho Sigma Rho's Count Basie Jump this Friday night. Once again we hall one of the swing idols who scored not so long ago in Jersey City. Topping the most list for February 12 is the battle of music proudly presented by the Tuxedo Pals, featuring Lucky Middleton, Orlando Robeson, Edgar Hayes and last, but not least, Panchito Blazes. They have secured Newark's Laurel Garden, the fine ball room and four hands at once.

Congratulations to Leone Willis and Alexander "Billy" Edwards, who recently were betrothed. Ernie Matthews has finally gone back, line and sailor for Marjorie Banks, charming Miss of the Oranges, and now falls around humming "Margie," his favorite tune. Father time is, spelling his mash and I'm best except for a dose of granules, so I'll pad my earth sneakers on the turf and dig you next week, same network, same station, but different live.

Parthenia Miner, 193 Union street, Jersey City.

Mrs. Agnes Williams, president of the Pathfinders Club, Y. W. C. A., is ill at the home of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Pettis, 1065 Lafayette street.

Rev. George T. Hall of Newport, N. H., who was non-ducting revival services at the Union Baptist Church, was taken ill suddenly last Friday and is now recuperating in New York City at the home of friends.

Madison By BERNICE SHULER

There was a report in last week's News that Cassette Bar was improving. I regret very much to say that she passed away January 26 at 6:00 o'clock in the morning. Curtea, age 16, was a sophomore in Madison High

VOCALIST

JAMES RUSHING

That Sepia Swing artist of Basie's Band, not only is tops in his rendition of "Good Morning Blues" and many other popular selections, but also tops in weight, tipping the scales at a wee 259 pounds. Don't fail to hear him next Friday night at Krueger's Auditorium.

PASSAIC Chatter Box

At the Lunceford jump, Paul Tooley, Edward Tooley, Bill Slattery, George Miller, David Johnson and Hector Johnson. The 29-23 shuffling the Crescents handed the Kanyons was just what the doctor ordered. Money was changing hands almost as fast as Buddie Simms left Passaic. The in-between show put on by the Crescents and featuring the leading rugcutters of this vicinity was a solid sander. Chester (Dollar Bill) Paige and Eljah (Small Change) Harris were the stars of the affair. They had to dance three times before the audience would let them quit.

Harry Cason, Lillian Paige, Narcissus Veal and Lindsey Hinkle took part of the prize money that was offered in the Jitterbug Contest. It is whispered that Speedy Wilson is stuck on a certain Holmes-gal so he makes it possible for them to win the prizes at the Opportunity Hour.

Jimmie Lunceford has taken control of Jimmie (Moe) McCormick, old flame the country gal. Latest reports say that George Cason and Miss Lola are doing fine. The death of Jesse Johnson has my regrets. Although he was little known, he was my oldest admirer. I can relate his names where he thought I was the tops in sports when in reality I was as good as the average player. I hope that I am not boring you with my crying the blues over the death of a friend, but to me he was one whom we all want as a pal. The month of February promises to be interesting for those seeking the best in entertainment and dances. To start with, the Basie Hop on the 4th, a monster show at the Demo on the 2nd and an anniversary jump with the Jigly Twelvies on the 10th. The Popular Pals on the same hall on the 11th, and I'll see you next on the all-ways of September-00.
